

Ontario Provincial Police 100th Anniversary Watch

From its modest beginning in 1909, with the appointment of 45 officers, the Ontario Provincial Police has grown into a modern, internationally respected law enforcement organization providing policing services for all citizens of Ontario.

Today, the 7,500 men and women of the OPP are responsible for policing nearly one million sq. km. of land and 175,000 sq. km. of waterways. They dedicate many of their resources to serve a municipal population of two and a half million people in ever growing communities, in addition to the demanding task of patrolling nearly 17,000 km. of highways.

The Ontario Provincial Police is justifiably proud of its internationally recognized accomplishments in making the internet safer to better protect our young and vulnerable and in its ground breaking achievements in crime prevention and the investigation of organized and white collar crime.

"We have earned the respect and trust of the citizens of Ontario and we are fully committed to preserving our fine reputation into the future."

Julian Fantino, OPP Commissioner

As we prepare to celebrate our Centennial, it's the right time to show your pride in the OPP - Ontario's Police Professionals. The OPP Commissioned Officers' Association has selected one of Canada's leading watch designers, Time is Ticking Inc., to issue a truly remarkable limited edition commemorative timepiece that will reflect the heritage and future of a dedicated police service.

The OPP 100th anniversary watch is made with Seiko movements and has a curved crystal. Case plating is 24-karat gold and the striking alligator-style leather strap is manufactured by the Speidel Corporation. Each watch is being offered for only $65 (plus applicable taxes, shipping and handling) which is far below its actual value. A portion of the proceeds will be directed to the OPP Youth Summer Camp which brings police and young people together to foster positive police-youth relations in Ontario communities.

Thank the men and women of the Ontario Provincial Police for 100 years of service to the people of Ontario. Join in the celebration in a real and lasting way. Purchase an OPP Centennial Watch. Watches will be shipped in a distinctly monogrammed velveteen collector's box. Orders must be received by 1st October, 2008 for Christmas delivery. All sales are final.
