

"Let me win. But if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt."

The Law Enforcement Torch Run (LETR) began in 1981 in Wichita, Kansas. It is a unique campaign and largest grass-roots fundraising movement to benefit the Special Olympics. As LETR Founder and retired Chief of Police Richard LaMunyon once said, "What started in 1981...as a flicker of hope for Special Olympics has now become a roaring flame of stability for Special Olympics athletes world-wide."

The partnership of LETR and Special Olympics provides remarkable opportunities for athletes to transform themselves, their communities and the world. LETR is changing the future for persons with intellectual disabilities and lighting the way for acceptance and inclusion. The program helps define the brave participants as athletes and not by their disabilities.

LETR is run by law enforcement professionals around the world. Close to 97,000 individuals in over 45 countries participate in a global effort to raise money and awareness for Special Olympics. LETR has raised more than half a billion dollars and positively impacted millions of attitudes. The LETR for Special Olympics Ontario has partnered with one of North America's leading watch designers. Time Is Ticking Inc., which has a long and honourable tradition of creating truly striking, commemorative watches for the armed forces, police and government agencies.

We are now pleased to offer a Limited Edition LETR watch. The cost to you is only $90.00 plus applicable taxes and postage. This remarkable watch is being sold far below its retail value of approximately $250.00. Generous proceeds from each timepiece are being returned to the Special Olympics.

The slim-line watch has a Seiko Japanese movement, raised 24K gold plating on its face, engraved case back and designer-leather strap which is being offered in black, red and blue. The watch will be delivered in an embossed velveteen collector's box. This limited edition commemorative watch will make an excellent gift.

Show your pride in the Special Olympics and the Law Enforcement Torch Run in a very visible way, while tangibly supporting the thousands of remarkable Special Olympians.
